

2009 Part A & B Medicare Premiums, Co-Insurance, and Deductibles

Part A: Hospital Insurance	Monthly Premium
If you have fewer than 30 quarters of Social Security credits, you pay a monthly premium of:	$443.00
If you have between 30-39 quarters of Social Security credits, you pay a monthly premium of:	$244.00
If you have 40 or more quarters of Social Security credits, you do not pay a monthly premium.	$0
Inpatient hospital deductible:	$1,068.00
Inpatient hospital co-insurance:	$267.00 a day for 61st-90th day $534.00 a day for 91st-150th day
Skilled Nursing Facility co-insurance:	$133.50 a day for 21st-100th day

Part B: Medical Insurance
Annual deductible:	$135.00
Monthly premium: This is the amount of the monthly Part B premium for individuals who have an annual income less than or equal to $85,000, or $170,000 for couples.	$96.40
For individuals with incomes greater than $85,000 and less than $107,001 / couples with incomes greater than $170,000 and less than $214,001	$134.90
For individuals with incomes greater than $107,000 and less than $160,001 /	$192.70

couples with incomes greater than $214,000 and less than $320,001

For individuals with incomes greater than $160,000 and less than $213,001 / couples with incomes greater than $320,000 and less than $426,001

For individuals with incomes greater than $213,000 / couples with incomes greater than $426,000

$250.50

$308.30